Mathematical Programming: An Overview 1 Management science is characterized by a scientific approach to managerial decision making. It attempts to apply mathematical methods and the capabilities of modern computers to the difficult and unstructured problems confronting modern managers. It is a young and novel discipline. Although its roots can be

Mathematical Programming: An Overview 1

In 15.053, we present modeling techniques in optimization that are known as linear programming, integer programming, and nonlinear programming. Students can model optimization problems using spreadsheet optimization -- e.g., Excel and Excel Solver (tutorial, spreadsheet) -- or using an algebraic modeling language (Julia and JuMP). We also describe algorithms for optimization problems as well as general purpose heuristics.
