A grammar school is one of several different types of school in the history of education in the United Kingdom and other English-speaking countries, originally a school teaching Latin, but more recently an academically-oriented secondary school, differentiated in recent years from less academic Secondary Modern Schools.. The original purpose of medieval grammar schools was the teaching of Latin.

Welcome! This site contains grammar and usage worksheets that I created to use in my own college classes. I teach English composition, and although my courses presuppose fluency in English and a command of standard American grammar, syntax, and punctuation, I find that students benefit from a review, or in some cases, an introduction, to these concepts.

Introduction. Speakers of American English generally use the present perfect tense (have/has + past participle) far less than speakers of British English. In spoken American English, it is very common to use the simple past tense as an alternative in situations where the present perfect would usually have been used in British English.

It is also possible to describe someone or something by saying that they have more of a particular quality than any other of their kind. We do this by using superlative adjectives, which are formed by adding -est at the end of the adjective and placing the before it, or placing the most before the adjective, e.g.
