This previous blog article covered some of the HDX registration steps but is over a year old and more recent firmware releases for the HDX has streamlined and simplified this process some. So for any systems running release 3.0.3.x and newer the following directions are considered best practices when registering an HDX directly to an OCS or Lync Server environment.

Polycom HDX Registration with Lync Server : Jeff Schertz's

As of last week Polycom has released official support for native Lync integration with HDX Telepresence endpoints and RMX Infrastructure bridges among other products.
