In the alternative, many companies relegate the preceding level of detail into a note accompanying the financial statements, and instead just report a single number for "œproperty, plant, and equipment, net of accumulated depreciation" on the face of the balance sheet.

What Costs Are Included In Property, Plant, & Equipment

Accountants use the credits and debits recorded in ledgers or "books" prepared by bookkeepers to create a company's financial statements. In this course, accounting professors Jim and Kay Stice walk you through the four key steps in the bookkeeping process: analyzing, recording, summarizing transactions, and preparing financial reports.
