Welcome to remotecodelist.com a site born after losing one too many universal remote manuals. If you have a remote for which you know the codes (or a web page that lists them) head to the contact page to submit them. Note: This site does not sell remotes, it is merely a list of remote control instructions and codes.

Universal Remote Control Codes

Universal remote controls are a dime a dozen these days, and I bought one as a backup to my other remotes. The only problem with these things is that you need to know the codes of the remotes you want to emulate, and these codes are usually in the manual.

Universal Remote Control Codes

We recently bought a universal remote control for an extra bedroom and needed to find the remote codes to control our existing Sanyo TV and Toshiba DVD player. We ended up searching multiple websites and still didn't find the code list we needed. So we used multiple sources and gathered up the universal remote control 3 digit codes for most TV, VCR, Satellite, DVD, DVR and Blu-ray players.

In electronics, a remote control or clicker is a component of an electronic device used to operate the device from a distance, usually wirelessly. For example, in consumer electronics, a remote control can be used to operate devices such as a television set, DVD player, or other home appliance, from a short distance. A remote control is primarily a convenience feature for the user, and can allow ...

The RC-5 protocol was developed by Philips in the late 1980s as a semi-proprietary consumer IR remote control communication protocol for consumer electronics. However it was also adopted by most European manufacturers, as well as many US manufacturers of specialty audio and video equipment. The other main protocol used by consumer electronics manufacturers is the NEC protocol.
