In military engineering, earthworks are, more specifically, types of fortifications constructed from soil. Although soil is not very strong, it is cheap enough that huge quantities can be used, generating formidable structures. Examples of older earthwork fortifications include moats, sod walls, motte-and-bailey castles, and hill forts. Modern examples include trenches and berms.

9.SHOP PRACTICES. Knowing about good electronic shop practices begins with introduction to the basic tools and test instruments used in electronic repair, production and troubleshooting. It continues with "hands-on" activity directed towards learning practical skills such as soldering and de-soldering and making connecting leads and cables.
