Renewable energy is energy that is collected from renewable resources, which are naturally replenished on a human timescale, such as sunlight, wind, rain, tides, waves, and geothermal heat. Renewable energy often provides energy in four important areas: electricity generation, air and water heating/cooling, transportation, and rural (off-grid) energy services.

Hoover Dam is a concrete arch-gravity dam in the Black Canyon of the Colorado River, on the border between the U.S. states of Nevada and Arizona. It was constructed between 1931 and 1936 during the Great Depression and was dedicated on September 30, 1935, by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Its construction was the result of a massive effort involving thousands of workers, and cost over one ...

The dependencies of AM techniques on related technologies such as material modeling, design tools, computing, and process design represent a challenge for both applied and basic research, shown in Fig. 1. In order to advance research interests and investment in AM technologies, some fundamental questions and trends in these avenues need highlighting.

Although each stream looks alike outwardly, they are vastly different. The one on the left is known in our literature as the Sons of Cain. They are full of positive energy and are the craftsmen of the world, the three-messen, who carve their way through life, rather enjoying the obstacles which they know strengthen the character; they
